FIND SMUGGLERS' TUNNEL ON BORDER

GENEVA, Oct. 21.—Police at Kreuzlingen, a small town at the lower end of Lake Constance, are reported to have found a smugglers' tunnel 700 yards long, under the Swiss-Austrian border.

A shorter tunnel under the border was recently found there. The newly discovered tunnel leads from an ancient Augustine abbey, in which the smugglers made an Aladdin's cave.

They are supposed to have been operating here several years, handling contraband goods. The smugglers were given a start by finding a forgotten underground passage extending from the abbey, which they prolonged to bring it out well beyond the Austrian frontier.

ROYAL BEDS IN HOSPITAL.
PODGORITZA, Montenegro, Oct. 21.—Beds formerly occupied by King Nicholas and Crown Prince Mirko of Montenegro, are now being used by the American Red Cross in its hospitals at Cetinje. Montenegrin mountaineers found lying on the stone floors of their smoky homes are now comfortably taken care of between linen.

FORM DISTRIBUTION CENTER.
GHISTELLES, Belgium, Oct. 21.—A distribution center of household supplies and clothing is being organized here by an agent of the American Red Cross for the refugees who have been unable to return to their own communities, but are still living in the vicinity.

HOSPITAL TO DRIVE FOR $100,000 DEC. 1

The Children's Hospital will open its drive for $100,000 on December 1, and it will last for one week, it was announced today.

A meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Bell Sweeney, 1637 Connecticut avenue northwest, yesterday, at which some plans for the drive were prepared. Mrs. Sweeney is in charge of the drive for the board of lady managers.

Those present included Miss Looker, president of the board of lady managers; Mrs. Clarence Wilson, Mrs. Reginald Huidekoper, Mrs. C. C. Glover, Jr., Admiral Brownson, Perry Johnson, and Clifford Johnson, of the Y. M. C. A., who is managing the drive for the hospital. At the meeting, Admiral Brownson was made general chairman of the drive.

HATCHES SNAKE EGGS.
PORT CLINTON, Ohio, Oct. 21.—With the most common method of developing snakes taken away by law, A. G. Winnie, editor of the Ottawa County Republican, has discovered a new one. He is hatching a number of timber snake eggs in a box in the office window. One snake already has burst from an egg and others show signs of emerging.

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY Festivities for Belgian King and Queen to Be Strictly Official—News of the Diplomats

THE program of entertainment for the King and Queen of the Belgians, who will arrive here next Monday afternoon, will include dinner parties to be given by the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall, who will act as hosts in the place of the President and Mrs. Wilson; the Belgian Ambassador and Baroness de Cartier, and the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing, all of which will be strictly official. It is understood that the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall's dinner will be given at 2022 Massachusetts avenue, the spacious and handsome home of Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh.

The impression in official quarters now is that there will be no large function in honor of the royal visitors while they are in Washington, and that only those closely affiliated with the official world will have an opportunity to meet them. If this course is followed it will be a matter of the keenest disappointment to scores of people who have a feeling of reverence and almost personal affection for Belgium's gallant king and his consort.

Mrs. William Gibbs McAdoo, who is making a short visit at the White House, accompanied Mrs. Wilson on a daily motor ride yesterday afternoon.

LeBreton Returns Tonight.
The Argentine Ambassador and Mme. LeBreton, who have been in New York for several days, will return to the embassy tonight. Miss Manuela Loveras is with them.

The news of the appointment of Domício da Gama, former Brazilian Ambassador to the United States, to the post of first Brazilian ambassador to Great Britain, has been officially confirmed in dispatches from Rio de Janeiro. Dr. Fontoura Xavier, Brazil's minister to Great Britain, who has been frequently mentioned as senior da Gama's probable successor at Washington, has been appointed Brazilian ambassador to Portugal and will start shortly for his new post.

Returns From New York.
The Minister of Switzerland and Mme. Sulzer will return to Washington tonight from New York, where they went to meet her brother-in-law and sister, M. and Mme. de Salis, on their arrival in this country. M. and Mme. de Salis will be guests of Dr. and Mme. Sulzer at the legation.

Lord and Lady Swaythling of England will arrive in Washington today to be guests for the day at the home of M. and Mme. Grouitch. They will come from the Great Lakes training station, where they have been visiting and where a special review of 40,000 sailors was arranged in honor of Lady Swaythling is known as the British "godmother of the gods," having organized the first committee for the entertainment of American sailors in England.

The sailors from the great naval station at East Leigh, near Southampton, were allowed the privileges of shooting and fishing on Lord and Lady Swaythling's vast estates nearby, and all manner of recreation was provided for them there. Many festivities had been arranged for Lord and Lady Swaythling during their visit to Dr. and Mme. Grouitch, but they will be cancelled at the mourning for the Italian ambassador, Count V. Macchi di Cellere, whose sudden death last evening came as a great shock to his colleagues and the diplomatic and Washington society in general.

Sturtevant will entertain at dinner at the Chevy Chase Club tomorrow evening for their daughter, Miss Ruth Sturtevant, an Curtis-Ripley Smith, whose marriage will take place on Saturday. The guests will include the members of the bridal party who are now in town. Miss Barbara Foster, of Boston, Miss Alice Davison, of New York, Miss Elizabeth Russell, of Detroit, who will be among the bridesmaids, and the maid of honor, Miss Dorothy Smith of St. Albans, Vt., will reach Washington on Friday and will all be guests of Miss Foster's grandmother, Mrs. Foster, at Wardman Park Hotel on Friday evening. Miss Sturtevant will entertain her bridesmaids at dinner and Mr. Smith will give his bachelor dinner. On Saturday, preceding the wedding, Mrs. Sidney Ballou will give a buffet luncheon for Miss Sturtevant and her bridal party.

Irwin Laughlin, Counselor of the American embassy in London, and Mr. Laughlin have arrived in this country and are at the Hotel St. Regis, New York, for a few days.

The Hon. Elidore Campbell, secretary of the British embassy, has left Washington for a month's leave. Mr. Campbell and their small son are still in England, where they have been visiting relatives for several months.

Commander and Mrs. Emory Whipple, who are at the Shoreham Hotel, are expected to return to the United States.

Hubbards Return to D. C.
Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ferdinand Hubbard have returned to Washington from their wedding trip and are at home at Wardman Park Hotel. Mrs. and Mrs. Hubbard were married in Baltimore on October 4, in St. Michael and All Angels' Episcopal Church.

The bridal party was entertained at a breakfast by Colonel Branch at the Belvedere Hotel, and Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard left immediately after for a short wedding trip.

Mrs. Hubbard before her marriage was Miss Mary Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Warren, of Olney, Va. She is a direct descendant of Gen. Joseph Warren, of Revolutionary fame. Mr. Hubbard makes his home in New York and Washington.

Charming Wedding.
Charming simplicity marked the wedding of Mrs. Alice Blendi Chunn and Capt. W. H. Middelwart, U. S. A., which took place Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Terfinger, Laurel, Md. Owing to the death on August 14 of the bridegroom's father, R. H. Middelwart, at his home, Bluefield, W. Va., the wedding was quietly performed in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives by the Rev. Alexander Balaski, of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Middelwart, who was born in Washington, resided at 235 Ninth street southeast, and joined the Potomac Division of the Red Cross when the war was declared. Her attractive personality, combined with her willingness to be of service at all times, soon made her a favorite, and among her wedding presents the gift that was given her by her friends in the Potomac Division is the most prized. Captain and Mrs. Middelwart will be at home after November 1 at 1341 Irving street.

Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Richard L. Hoxie have returned to Washington after a summer spent in Iowa. They have reopened their home in Farragut Square and will be at home on Tuesday afternoons until their departure for their new winter home in Miami, Florida.
